

7 From the first graph there is one x -intercept of 3. The solution using the x -intercept method is $x = 3$. In the second graph the lines intersect at $(3, -1)$. The solution is the x -value of $x = 3$.